

State Discipleship Leaders Network National Invitational Bible Drill/Speakers Tournament Attire Guidelines

The State Discipleship Leaders Network NIT procedural team feels that the level of competition at the national level requires specific attention to appropriate attire. Each state sets the requirements for dress at their individual state competitions, but at the NIT, a “business/casual” or “business” attire is required for both drillers and speakers.

These guidelines were put into place in 2003 and have been updated to reflect current styles in dress. The following guidelines state the definition of business/casual and business attire. NIT participants can choose from the selections stated.

Because of the high visibility of this event, observers are also highly encouraged to choose appropriate attire. Tee-shirts, cut-offs, jeans, flip-flops, etc. are not appropriate.

Drillers:

Boys: Shirt with a collar. Slacks (no jeans)

Girls: Dress, skirt & blouse, pantsuit. (no tee-shirts, flip-flops, etc.)

Speakers:

Boys: Shirt and tie with slacks or suit

Girls: Dress, skirt & blouse, pantsuit or suit
